March Guidelines

This is a commemorative occasion, so dignity & reverence are appropriate!

In accordance with the RS&L March Committee Guidelines: March Dress is: Business Attire (no joggers/jeans) – Suit, Pants/Skirt & Jacket/Blazer & Tie for the gentlemen please with comfortable walking shoes. NB: Children may wear school uniform or service club uniform eg: cubs, guides, brownies, scouts, girls/boys brigade etc Yellow/Clear Rain ponchos are OK if wet.

Only one family member per veteran allowed to march on the day i.e. medals are not to be divided up!

- Medals are to be worn on your right side. Copy medals are allowed. Ladies may find that miniatures are kinder on your clothing.
 - Preferred that photographs not be carried
 - March 8-10 abreast as per instructions.
 - Keep in time with everyone else. Hopefully we have a band nearby to help with that.
 - Constantly check that your row across is in a straight line and that you are in line with the person in front of you.
 - When turning a corner, those on the inside take small steps and those on the outside will need to take larger steps.
 - At the Cenotaph be aware of putting your ® hand over your heart and your eyes R or L to the cenotaph as instructed.
- Don't forget your issued name badge.

Group Photo after followed by a get together for a drink and lunch. Have a great day!
Any questions please check with Marshalls.
